

ELLIE CUMMINGS

Ellie is a professional actress, mime artist and entertainment company director. On leaving East 15 Acting School, her first performance was for 14,000 people at a stadium in Vienna. Since then she has travelled the world in a variety of guises: recent credits include: Chanel, Hunger TV and Belvedere Palace. Ellie directed the entertainment and performers for the Rugby World Cup 2015 and has devised, directed and participated in performances for members of international Royal Families and VIP's across the world. She continues her performance training with Philippe Gaulier and is proud to be an Ensemble member for Arts in Action.

Combining her performance experience with her many qualifications in complementary therapy and coaching, Ellie works with actors and corporate people to develop their presence and communication. Using movement, acting exercises and bodywork techniques, Ellie encourages individuals to connect to their own truth and power to become fully realised, uninhibited, confident human beings and performers.
